

Continued Page 2

During the last twelve months NCECJS organised academic events about sharing forensic biometric information with the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences and the University of Lat-

YLD 7LP DQG WKH & HQWUH ¶V 5HVHDUFK)HOORZ & KULV :R
ennial forensic science conference held in Prague in early September. NCECJS members
'U $VKOH\ 6DYDJH IURP WKH /DZ 6FKRRO DQG 'HUHN -RKQV phy Department joined them at the prestigious Stockholm Criminology Symposium in

CENTRE FOR EVIDENCE & CRIMINAL JUSTICE STUDIES

The Centre encourages the exchange of ideas and facilitates collaboration regionally, nationally and internationally. NCECJS brings together Northumbria academics and post-graduate students from a range of disciplines with colleagues